☞ In euery coūtye shalbe assigned a lorde, & thre or foure of the most sustancyal of the shyre with somme learned in the lawe, for the sauegarde of the peace, and they haue power to enquere of mysdoers, ryottours, and other barratours, and them pursue, arreste, take and chastyce after theyr trespas, and to impryson & duely punysshe them accordynge to the lawe & custome of the Realme, and also to enquere of them that wander aboute, whiche wyll not labour as they were wonte, and to take and arreest al those that they fynde culpable by enditement or suspeccion, and to cōmyt them to prysone, and they that be suspecious, and not of good fame, to take suretye of theyr good aberynge before they goo out of pryson. And also they maye at the Kynges suyte heare, and determyne all Felonies and trespasse commytted within the same coūtye. Anno.34.Edwardi.3. Capitulo primo.

¶ In euery cōmyssyon of the peace throughe the Realme, where nede shall be, two men of lawe of the same countye, shall be assygned to go and procede to the delyueraunce of theues and felons, as often as they shall thynke it expedient the statute therof is an.17.R.2.ca.vlt.

☞ In euery cōmyssyon of Justyces of peas

there sha'l be but.vi.Justicers assygned with the Justycers of Assyse, and that the sayde.vi. Justycers shal holde theyr sessyons euery quarter of the yere at lest, and by thre dayes yf nede be, on payne to be punysshed after the aduyse of the kynges counsayle at the suyte of any that wyll cōplayne. And they shal enquere of Mayres, Stewardes, Constables, and gaylours, yf they haue made dewe executyon of the statute made for seruauntes labourers and beggers, & shal punysshe the punysshable by the payne of C.s. and they that be founde fautye, & not punysshable by the samepayne, shalbe punysshed by theyr discrecyon. And euery of the sayd Justycers shall take.iiii.s.a daye for theyr wages for the tyme of theyr sayde sessyons, and theyr clerke.ii.s. of the fynes and mercyamentes rysynge and commynge of the same sessyons, by the handes of the Shyryffes: And that the lordes of franchyses shal be contributours to the sayd wages after the rate of their pte of fynes & amercyamentes afor sayd an.12.R.2.Ca.10.

☞ In euery countie shalbe assigned.viii. Justycers of Peace, and theyr estreytes shall be doubled, and the one parte delyuered by the sayde Justicers to the shyryffe, to leuye the money rysynge of the same sessyons, & the shyryfe shall pay them theyr wages therof by Indenture. And that no Duke, Earle, Baron, nor Baneret, althoughe they be assygned Justyces of peace and sytte in the sessyons with the other.viii. shall take no wages. And that the Justycers putte theyre names in the streytes, togyther with the nōbre of the dayes of theyr sessyons, to the entent the shyryffes may know to whome to paye wages. The statute therof is Anno. 14. R. 2. Capi. 11.

¶ No personne shalbe assygned to be Justyce of the Peace in no countye within the realme of Englande, excepte he haue landes or tentes to the value of. xx. li. by yere, and yf any be ordeyned hereafter Justyce of the Peace in any countye that hathe not landes and tenementes to the value aforesayde, and dothe not notifye the same to the chaūcellor of Englande for the tyme beynge, within a monethe after that he hathe knowledge of the sayde cōmissyon, or yf he sytte in the sessyons, or make any warrant or precepte, by force of the same cōmyssyon, he shall lose. xx. li. And yet neuertheles he shall be put out of the commyssyon: of whiche penaltie the kynge shall haue the one moytie, and he that wyll sue for the kynge, the other halfe, and shal haue an accion to demaūde the penaltie by a wrytte of Dette at the cōmen lawe. Prouyded that this extende nat to suche Cytyes and borowes, that be coūties encorporate of them selfe, nor to cytyes, townes, and borowes, that haue Justyces of peace of the inhabytantes by commyssyon or graunt of the kynge or his progenytours. Prouyded also that yf there be nat men suffycyent, hauynge landes & tenementes to the value aforesayde, lerned in the lawe and of good gouernaunce, within any suche coūtie that other lerned in the lawe shalbe made Justyces of the Peace, by the dyscrecyon of the

Chaūcellour of Englande, for the tyme beyng though they haue no landes to suche value. Anno.18.Henrici.6.capi.11.

¶ Justyces of peace shalbe swozne, duely and without fauoure to kepe and put in execucyon all the statutes and ozdinances touchyng their offyces. Anno.13.R.2.Capi.7.

☞ Yf any man enter into landes and tenementes, and kepe them with foꝛce, the Justyce of peace (after they be complayned vnto) shall take with them the power of the shyꝛe, & go to the place where entre was made with foꝛce: & yf they fynde any that holdeth suche place foꝛcybly the Justyce shal comytte them to the next Gaole, there to abyde as conuycte by the Recoꝛde of the same Justyces, oꝛ Justyce, vnto the tyme they haue made fyne and rāsome to the kynge, and that all the shyꝛe, as well the Shyꝛyffe as other, shall be attendaunt to the sayde Justices of peace, to go and strength the sayde Justyces, to arreste myſdoers, on payne of empꝛisonemēt, and to make fine to the king And the same lawe and reason is foꝛ entres into benefyces and offyces of the church, the statute is. Anno, 15. R. 2. Capi. 2. Foꝛcyble entre.

¶ It is agreed that the statut of Anno decimo quinto Ry.2. of foꝛcyble entre, shalbe holden in all poyntes. And bycause the sayde Statute extendeth not to entres into tenementes in peasyble maner, & after kepte with foꝛce, oꝛ yf those persons that entred by foꝛce be voyded & gone befoꝛe the Justyces of the Peace come, It is agreed ẏ yf any make suche foꝛcyble entre into Statute of foꝛcyble entre.

landes or tenementes, or kepe them forcyably. that after complaynte made to the Justices of peace they and euery of theym haue power to enquere therof inconuenyent place by theyr discrecyon, at the costes of the partyes greued, and the persones that made suche forcyble entres: shalbe presented or voyded. And the sayde Justyces of peace shall make theyr warrantes & preceptes, dyrected to the shyriffe of the same shyre. &c. to do come before them suffycient and indifferēt persons that dwel nerest to the sayde tenementes, to enquere of suche entres, and euery one that shalbe so empanelled before the sayde Justycers, shall haue landes and tenementes to the value of. xl. s, by the yere aboue the charges. And the shyryf shal retourne issues vpon euery of them, the fyrste daye of returne of the precept. xx. s. the. ii. daye. xl. s. the. iii. C. s. & at euery day after double. And yf the shyryffe or baylyfe of franches, hauynge returne of the kynges wrytte, be slacke, & make not execucyon of the sayd preceptes, he shall lose for euery defaute, xx. li. and make fyne to the kynge: and as well Justycers of peace, as Justices of Ass. haue power to heare & determyne such defautes & neclygences of the sayd shyryffes & bayliffes as well by byll at the suyte of the partie, as by endytement taken for the kynge onely. And yf the shyryffe or baylyffe be duelye atteint in this behalfe by endytement or byll, he that wyll sue for hym selfe, and the kynge shal haue the halfe of the forfayture of. xx. li. with hys costes and expences. And that suche proces shalbe made agaynst them as in an accion of Trespas with force. An. 8. H. 6. Ca. 9.

¶ Where any, ryot, rout or assēble of people is had agaynst the lawe, two or thre of the Justyces of the peace, and the shyryffe or vndershyryffe shall take suche power of the shyre, as shalbe nede to arreste them, and the same Justices, shyryffe, & vndershyriffe shal haue power to recorde the mater, as they fynde it, and the persones beynge yll doers, shalbe conuycte by theyr recorde. And yf it happen the same yl doers to be departed before the Justyces, shyryffe and vndershyriffe come: than they shal enquere therof within a moneth immediatly after such ryotte, assemble, or route of the people so done, and they shall heare & determyne it accordynge to the lawe of the lande: and yf the verdyte be not founde within a moneth, they shall certyfye the kynge or hys coūsel of all the circūstances within a moneth, whiche certyfycat shalbe of the same effecte, as thoughe it had be foūde by twelue men. And yf any mysdoers wyll trauers the mater, than the certyfycat and the trauers shall be sente into the kynges Benche: there to be tried. And the iustyce of peace, dwellynge most nere in any countye, where any suche ryotte of people shalbe here after, togyther with the shyryffe, or vndershyryffe of the same countye, and also the iustyces of Assyse for the tyme that they shalbe there in theyr Sessyons in case that any suche ryotte assemble or route shalbe made in theyr presence, shall do execusyon of the sayde Statute, eche, on payne to pay.C.li. to the kyng.as oft as they shal faute to execute the same statute. An.13.H.4.Ca.vii.

¶ Justyces of the peace in euery shyre, in two of theyr Sessyons holden bytwene Easter and Myghelmas, shall make pclamacyon by theyr discrecyon, after the derthe of vytayles, howe muche a mason, a carpenter, a tyler, and other craftis men, workmen, & laborers shal take by the day, as well in Auguste as in other tymes of the yere, with meate and drynke, or without meate and drynke, bytwene the two Sessyons aforesayde. And that euery man obeye these proclamacions, from tyme to tyme, as a thyng made by statute. And all vitaylers shal take theyr wynnynge after the discrecion and limitacyon of the sayd iustices of ye peace on payne to be greuously punysshed after the discrecyon of the sayd iustyces of peace where no payne afore tyme hath ben limitted on the sayd vitaylers. Anno.13.R.2.Capi.8.

Fugitiue laborers,

¶ Justyces of the peace haue power to sende theyr wryttes for fugityue laborers, to eche shyryffe of this realme of Englande, and to make suche proces as the statute requereth, to bryng them before thẽ, to answere to our soueraygne lorde the kynge and to the parties, of the contemptes and trespasses done contrary to the ordinaunces and statutes in that behalfe, prouyded in lyke maner as the sayde Justyces haue power to sende to anyshyryffe for theues endited before them. And also that all the statutes and ordynaũces of laborers, seruantes, & artyfycers made in tyme past and not repelled, be

exemplyfyed vnder the great seale, and sent to euery shyre of the realme of Englande to proclayme them in full countie, and after this proclamacyon so made, the shyryffe shall cause the same exēplifycacyon, to him directed, to be delyuered to the Justyces of the peace, or to one of them, to remayn with the same Justyces, that be or shalbe for the better puttynge of the Statutes and ordynaunces in execucyon. And that Justyces of peace in euery countye named of the Quorum be resseant within the same countye, excepte Lordes named in the commyssyon, and also excepte Justyces of the one benche & of the other, the chyefe baron of the Escheker, sergeantes at the lawe, and the kynges atturney, for the tyme that they shalbe attendynge and occupyed in the kynges courtes, or other wyse enbused in the kynges seruyce, and shall holde theyr sessyons .iiii. tymes in the yere, that is to say, in the fyrst weke after the feast of S. Myghell, the fyrst weke after the Epiphanye, the fyrst weke after the (clausum Pasche) and the fyrst weke after saynt Thomas day, and oftener yf necessyte requyre. And iustyces of the peace haue power to examyne all labourers, artyfycers, and seruaūtes, by theyr othes of thynges by them done contrary to the ordynance & Statutes, and to punysshe them therupon, as well as vpon enquest. An. 2. H. 5. capi. 4. et an. 34, Edwardi. 3. capi. 10.

¶ Plees, suytes, and proces, commenced before Justyces of the peace, shall not be dyscontynued by newe commissyons of peace made to other

other Justycers, but those plees and processes shall stande in theyr strengthe. And the Justyces in the same newe commissyons so assygned after that they haue the recordes of the sayde plees & processe afore them, shal haue power & auctorytе to continue the sayde plees and processes, and the same and al other dependyng to heare & fynally determyne, in lyke maner as ẏ other Justyces mought & ought to haue don if no newe comiss. had ben made. an. 11. H. 6. ca, 6

¶ Justyces of peace haue power to enquere. heare and determyne, in case yf men of Wales by day or by nyght comme into the Shyres of Herforde, Shrewesburye, Glocester, and other Shyres adioynynge, and take men with them, and kepe them in Wales in the Mountaynes, vnto the tyme that theyhaue payde certayne sommes of money. And yf the sayde mysdoers wyll not appere, vnto the tyme that they be outlawed, than shall the same Justyces wrytte letters vnto the officers of the seignoryes, where suche mysdoers dwel of the out lagarye vpon them pronounced, and the same offycers vpon that certificacion, to take the bodyes of those outlawes, and do execution vpō them in the same seignorye, as the lawe requyreth in that case, without fyne or raunsome in this behalfe to be made. Statut. 2. Anno. 2. Henrici. 5. ca. 5.

¶ The fourme and maner of the Justyces of Peace charge.

E shall enquere of Herytykes and lollardes, & such as kepe erronyous opinions, teache & preache y same contrary to the faythe and lawes of the Churche, or kepe any scooles therof, in hurt and preiudyce of the faythe, ye shall do vs to wete of theyr names, and of theyr opynyons, and howe longe they haue contynued therin. Vide statutũ. An. 2.H.5.Capi.7. Herytykes & lollardes.

¶ Two Justyces of peace of the shyre, where it shall happen any person or persons to be accused, presented, or indyted of herysye, may by theyr discrecyons, in defaut of the ordynaryes lette suche person or persons to bayle, by .iiii. suffycyent suertyes, bounde to the Kynges vse by oblygacyon or recognysaunce, to appere before the ordynaryes at suche dayes, tymes, and places, as shall be lymytted in the sayde bondes by the sayde two Justyces, excepte the ordynaryes canne and do declare to the Kynges hyghnesse, and to hys cõusayle, a reasoonable cause, that the sayd person or persons accused or presented of Herysye, shulde not be lette to Herysye.

barle Anno. 25. H. 8. Capi. 4.

Marked in church yardes.

¶ Also ye shall enquyre of all them that kepe any fayres, or markettes, in churcheyardes, or in any other holy place, where any sellynge is, and howe longe they haue contynued therin, the Statute therof is of Edwarde the thyrde made at Wynchester. And also in the statute made at Wynchester, the. 13. yere of Ed. 1. it was defended, that feyres shulde no more be kept in churchcyardes.

Coûterfetyng of coyne.

¶ Ye shall enquere of them that counterfeyte the kynges coyne, or yf there be any false money and payment made therwith. And of them that brynge false money into thys Realme, or that counterfeyte the coyne of another realme whiche by the kynges sufferaunce is currau[n]t within this Realme, ye shall do vs to wete, And of them that clyppe, wasshe, fyle, or other wyse falsyfye the money of this Realme: And this semeth to be hyghe treason, for the statute sayth, that he is a traytour to the kynge & hys realme Anno tercio Henrici quinti statuto s[e]c[un]do Capi. 6. et. 7.

Galy halfpens

¶ And the same. iii. yere of the sayde Kynge, it was ordeyned that galyhalfepens, suskynnes dodkyns, and all money of Scotlande shulde, be all put out, and who that maketh, byethe, coyncethe, or bryngethe into thys realme galyhalfpens, suskyns, and dodkyns, shall be punysshed as a felon, and he that taketh or payeth suche money, shall lose an C. s. wherof the Kynge shall haue the one halfe, and he that wyll sewe the other halfe. And that Justy-

ters of Peace in euery Shyre of thys Realme, haue power to enquyre therof, to heare and determyne the same. ,

☞ Also of the that flee theyr mayster, that is for to say theyr soueraygne, as wyfe her husband, seruant his mayster, or any, vnder whose obeysance he is: the cause is, the mayster hathe to hym more truste then to a straunger. Vide statutum inde. Anno viscerimoquinto Edwardi tertii Cap. secundo: — Of suche as flere their soueraygne.

¶ Also Justyces of peace haue full power and auctorytie in theyr sessyons to enquyre of trayterous murderers and murders of poysonynge as well as of the counterfeytynge of coyne of any outwarde realme, suffered to ronne and go within this realme by the kynges assent, and to make proces therupon by Capias only for poysonynge is adiudged & deamed as hyghe treason by act of parlyament made. Anno viscerimo secundo Hērici. 8. Capi. 9: — Poysonynge.

¶ And ye shall enquyre, yf any man be slayne or murdered by the day, whether the murderer be taken by the towneshyp, where the murder was done, for yf he be not, the towneshyp shal be amercyed. Anno. 3. H. 7. Capi. 1.

☞ Also ye shall enquyre of all them that cast any bylles into any mans house, in the whiche bylles is conteyned, that yf the same personne brynge not a certayne somme of money, or laye it at a certayne place and howre, his house shal be brent, and the money be not there layde, the house is brent, this is hyghe treason. The statute therof is. An. 8. H. 6. Capi. 6. — Threttes to brenne a mans house.

Murder and man slaught. ¶ Also ye shal enquyre of all maner of felones bycause some of them ben more heynous than some, as murder and manslaughter. Murder is proprely where a man by malyce prepensed lyeth in a wayte to slee a man, and accordynge to that malycyous intent & purpose, he sleeth hym so that he, whiche is slayne, maketh no defence agaynste hym, for yf he do, it is manslaughter and no murder, the offence of thys murder is more heynous than the offence of other felonyes, for yf the kynge graunte hym a pardō of all maner of felonyes, it auayleth him nought for murder, but yf it make expresse mencyon of murders. And the Statute therof is Anno. 13. R. 2. Cap. 1.

Chaunce medley. ¶ And manslaughter is, where two men, or mo mete, and by chaunce medley, they fall at affraye, so that one of them sleeth another, it is but felonye in hym selfe, and therfore yf any pson be detectyue in this wyse, make your presentment accordynge. vt s.

Rape. ¶ Also ye shal enquire of rape, Rape is where a man rauyssheth or taketh a mans wyfe, wydowe, or mayde agaynst her wyll, and hath to do with her agaynst her wyl, albeit that she assent afterwarde, yet it is Felonye, & without the kynges charter make mencyon of rape, it auayleth hym nought. The Statute therof is Westm. ii. Capi. 34.

Roberie. ☞ There be also Felons, that contyue takynge awaye of mennes goodes, as by robbery and thefte. Robbery is where a man lyethe by the kynges hyghe waye to market townes, in woddes, dyches, or in any other secrete places, where people come forth by, and robbeth thē, albeit that he taketh away, but the value of a peny or lesse, it is felonye, for the malapertnesse of the dede and ieopardye that a man is in of his lyfe, where it so taken away from his person causeth the offence to be greatter, then yf it had ben theuyshely stollen.

☞ Thefte is where a thef stealeth a mannes gooodes in his chamber or in his close, or any other place yf the value passe .xii. d. it is felonye, and yf it be not passynge the value of .xii. d it is but petyte larceny, or brybery, for the whiche he shal not dye, but make a fyne to the kig, but yf it can be foūde at diuers tymes, that he hath taken goodes of that value, and more, thē he shall dye therfore. Thefte.

☞ Also if there be any man, that burneth his neyghboours house malyciously by daye or by nyght, it is felonye. Also of them that breake houses by nyghte, to the intente to robbe, though they take nothynge away, it is burgulary, whiche in it selfe is felony, bycause the lawe gyueth no colour to breake a mans house by nyght. Burgulary.

¶ Clerkes conuicte of pety Treason, wylfull murder or robberies done by or nere the hyghe way. &c. shall make no purgacyon, excepte they do fynde .ii. suffycyent suertyes, euery of them hauynge landes, or other heredytamentes of charterholde of enherytaunce to the yerely value of .xx vi. s. viii. pens or els be worth .xx. li in mouable substance, eche of them to be bounde Clerkes cōuicte.

in.xx.li.and hym selfe in.xl. by recognysaunce before two Justyces of peace, within the same shyre, where suche offences were commytted, wherof one of them to be of the Quorum, that suche conuycte shalbe of good aberyng, which Justices shal certifye euery suche recognisance into the Kynges benche within.iiii. monethes nexte after the takynge therof, vpon payne of C.s.for euery defaute. Anno.23.H.8.Ca.1.

Gaylour

¶ Also yf any gaoler, Shyryffe, or other persone that hathe the kepynge of any gaole, by to great duresse of impryso̅nement & by payne make any prysoner that he hathe in his warde become an appelloure agaynste hys wyll, and therof be attaynted before the Kynges Justyces, he shall haue iudgeme̅t of lyfe and of membre. Anno.14.E.3.Capi.10.

¶ Justyces of Peace shal not impryson men, but in the common gaole, sauynge to all them, that haue gayles, theyr lybertye. An.5.Henrici quarti Capitulo.10.
